

Warso, John

YOUNG RELATIVES BOTH IN UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

DEC 1 * 1942

An uncle and his nephew, both 18 years of age and both hailing from Freemansburg, are serving Uncle Sam in the U. S. Navy. John Warso, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Warso, 36 Clearfield Street, marked his birthday on November 24. He enlisted in July and received his basic training at Newport, R. I. He has been on active sea duty in foreign waters and was at home over the past weekend with his parents. He graduated at Technical High School last June.

His nephew is Charles Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Weber, 34 Clearfield Street, a graduate of Technical High School, class of '41. He enlisted in the Navy last April and received his basic training at Newport, also. He studied at Bliss electrical school and is at present stationed at Corpus Christi, Texas, and was advanced in rating to radio technician third class.

Dec. 1, 1942