

Gregus, Alexander

HOB-NOBS WITH ACTOR
O'BRIEN

"The thrill that comes once in a lifetime" was Pfc. Alexander Gregus' when he met and talked with movie actor Pat O'Brien, not long ago during a U. S. O. benefit in Puerto Rico. Pfc. Gregus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Gregus, of Miller Heights, writes of his encounter with the noted cinema artist, declaring that "Pat is sure a swell fellow."

Pfc. Gregus entered the Army in October of 1941 and was stationed at first at a camp in Virginia. From there he was sent to Puerto Rico, where he now is. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company. MAR 25 1943
