

Lodics, Charles C.

Returns to Hospital

JUN 29 1943

Corporal Charles C. Lodics will return to the U. S. Convalescent Hospital in Santa Cruz, Calif., to recuperate from malaria and a shoulder wound received at Guadalcanal. The young Marine, who served ten months overseas and saw more than four months of action in the Solomons, spent a 40-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lodics, of Butztown.
