

Schildt, Edward F.

T/Sgt. Edward Schildt
Awaits Reassignment
At Fort Oglethorpe

Aug 20 1945
T/Sgt. Edward F. Schildt, son of Mrs. Margaret Schildt, 505 Sioux Street, is currently stationed at the Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., Redistribution Station, where he will spend two weeks before reporting to his new assignment in the States.

Sgt. Schildt was returned recently after having served 17 months in the European Theater of Operations, where he served as a platoon sergeant in the Infantry. He holds the Good Conduct Medal, Combat Infantryman's Badge, ETO ribbon with five campaign stars, Silver Star Medal, Distinguished Unit Badge and the Purple Heart.

August 20, 1945