Home After 19
Months Overseas

1945

Pfc. Stephen Slifka, combat engineer with 19 months overseas duty behind him, has returned to his home for a 30-day furlough and a "good rest." Inducted March 27, 1943, he received his basic training at Fort Lewis, Wash., and completed maneuvers in Oregon before going overseas to Scotland in January 1944. He saw action in the five major European campaigns, Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Central Germany and Ardennes.

Pfc. Slifka is a former employe of the Corbetta Construction Company. Two of his brothers are sergeants in the Army, and both have seen overseas duty. They are Sgt. Michael Slifka, now stationed in Hollywood, Cal., and Sgt. George Slifka, at Indiantown Gap.

At the completion of his furlough, Pfc. Slifka will leave his home, 1207 East Fourth Street, for Georgia, where he will be reassigned.
