

Stocker, Russell C

Stationed In Africa

Private Russell C. Stocker, U. S. Army, who some time ago spent a 10-day furlough with his parents at 436 East North Street, is now stationed "somewhere in Africa." This information has been received by his parents.

He was inducted into the combat forces on October 14, of last year, and finished his basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga. He was subsequently transferred to Fort Meade, Md. He was formerly employed by the Sure Fit Products Company.

May 12, 1944