

Wagner, Norwood O.

Local Soldier Expects
Yule Meal In France;
In Naples Last Year

DEC 2 1944
M. Sgt. Norwood O. Wagner, this city, Sgt. Christopher J. Quinn and S. Sgt. Willard F. Kershner, both of Allentown, will be among 60 Pennsylvania soldiers who expect to eat their third Christmas dinner overseas this year in a city in southern France where they are serving with a port battalion of the Delta Base Section.

They had their first Christmas dinner overseas in Casablanca, French Morocco, and their second was in Naples. This year they will again have turkey, with "all the fix-in's", as they continue to speed supplies to the fighting fronts in France.
