

Oswald, Theodore C.

T/Sgt. T. C. Oswald
Gets Commendation
For Pacific Service

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oswald, 1328 Easton Avenue, this week received a copy of a commendation issued to their son, T/Sgt. Theodore C. Oswald, for "services as a medical administrative specialist" in the Pacific area.

The commendation, signed by Brigadier General Jarred V. Crabb, commander of the 22nd Bombardment Group of the Fifth Air Force of which Oswald is a member, states his initiative and determination have aided greatly in establishing and maintaining the excellent record of his bombardment group.

T/Sgt. Oswald will be in service three years in January of next year and has been overseas the past 10 months. Prior to entering service he was graduated from Liberty High School and Eckles School of Embalming, Philadelphia.
