

Gregor, Joseph

Joseph Gregor, S1/C,
In Pacific Action
For Two Years

ABOARD THE USS MOBILE IN THE PACIFIC—A sight setter in one of this cruiser's busy five-inch gun mounts, Joseph C. Gregor, seaman first class, USN, of Bethlehem, has seen nearly all of the big naval actions in the Pacific the last two years.

AUG 13 1945

Gregor is the brother of Martin J. Gregor, 1124 Center Street. He played high school football and played in Ray Cireno's orchestra before entering the Navy three years ago. He is a member of this ship's band, where he mans the saxophone.

Some of his actions include: Truk, Iwo Jima, Okinawa, Luzon, both battles of the Philippine Sea, Bougainville, Formosa, Tadawa, Kwajalein, Panape, Saipan, Hollandia, Palau and Yap.
