

Rogacs, Marie

Physio-therapist

JAN. 31 1946

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rogacs of 1101 E. 4th Street have received word of the promotion of their daughter, Pvt. Marie Rogacs to Technician Fifth-grade.

T/5 Rogacs enlisted on December 7, 1944 and took her basic training at Fort Des Moines, Iowa. After completing training she had medical and surgical training at Wakeman General Hospital in Camp Atterbury, Indiana and took physio-therapy training at the England General Hospital at Atlantic City, N. J. where she graduated in July.

T/5 Rogacs is now stationed in Battle Creek, Michigan where she is a Physio-therapist technician at the Percy Jones General Hospital, an amputation center.

Before entering service T/5 Rogacs was employed as secretary in the Veterans Affairs Dept. at the County Court House, in Easton.
