

Hoch, J. J.

Lieut. J. J. Hoch
Gets Bronze Star

Dean Emeritus of Moravian Seminary, Miss Helena M. Hoch, 66 West Church Street, received word of her nephew, First Lieutenant J. J. Hoch's award of the Bronze Star Medal and citation for "meritorious service in connection with military operations against an enemy of the United States." APR 9 1945

The accompanying citation read: "During the period of November 12, 1944 to January 29, 1945, while the 95th Infantry Division was engaged in offensive operations against the enemy at Metz, France, and in Saarlautern, Germany, the service of First Lieut. Hoch was distinguished by superior skill and exemplary devotion to duty."

April 9, 1945