

Husser, Carl M.

THERESA ANN MADL
BRIDE OF SOLDIER
OCT 22 1942

Marriage to Pfc. Carl Hussar Solemnized in St. John's Church.

Miss Theresa Ann Madl, daughter of Mrs. E. Madl, 917 Evans Street, and Pfc. Carl M. Husser, son of E. Husser, 434 Carlton Avenue, were married recently in St. John's Capistrano Shurch, the Rev. Francis X. Gilly officiating.

Given in marriage by Francis Madl, the bride was attended by Misses Elizabeth S. Madl and Mary E. Royks. John Husser was his brother's best man, and William Fistner was usher.

The traditional wedding music was played by Sister Emelda. A reception followed at the bride's home. On their return from a trip to Baltimore, Md., the bride will reside with her parents.

The bride is a graduate of Broughal High School and is employed by the Edmar Hat Company. The bridegroom, a graduate of Liberty High School, is serving in the United States Army.
