"Willie Reynolds is a proven leader. He has the experience and vision to be a dynamic mayor for Bethlehem. He worked in my office for six years, and I saw firsthand his devotion to public service and his enthusiasm for our city." - Rep. Steve Samuelson

My first job out of Moravian College was working for State Representative Steve Samuelson.

I had the opportunity to work for Steve for six years before I decided to follow the family into the classroom at Allen High School. I watched, worked with, and learned from Steve that no task was too small for an elected official. Every citizen mattered to him on a personal level. Anyone who has ever met him knows there isn't a person alive with more integrity.

He is a tireless advocate for our community. Increasing public school funding, redistricting reform to eliminate gerrymandering, and making Harrisburg more transparent are a few of the areas in which he is a leader in Bethlehem and the state of Pennsylvania. We are happy to announce that he has endorsed our campaign today. I couldn't ask for a better mentor in the community.

Thank you, Steve!
