

Asber, Samuel

Coxswain Concludes Service With Navy

Veteran of both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters, Samuel Asber, Cox., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Asber, 501 East Fourth St., was honorably discharged three days ago at Bainbridge, Md.

He volunteered for duty March 25, 1943 and after completing his training at Sampson, N. Y., served in the Solomons aboard the LST-178 and aboard the USS Kimberly. He is entitled to wear the ETO ribbon with two battle participation stars, Pacific and American theater ribbons and the Victory Medal.

Prior to entering the Navy, Asber was a student at Bethlehem Technical High School, where he was a member of the basketball team.

Feb 21 1946