

Freudenberger, Nancy

Friday the 13th Jinx? Poof!

AUG - 12 1943

Maybe Friday the 13th Jinx has fears for some people, but not pretty Nancy Freudenberger, above, who simply laughs at the belief that Friday the 13th is an unlucky day. And just to prove it, she affectionately pets a black cat, also believed to bring bad luck. Miss Freudenberger, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Freudenberger of 1913 Arlington Street, Bethlehem, recently resigned her secretarial position at the Allentown State Hospital and will soon become a member of the women's auxiliary of the U. S. Marine Corps. She will receive her basic training at New River, N. C.

—Globe-Times Photo

August 12, 1943