

Hauze Jr., William J.

W. J. Hauze Jr., Completes
Radio Technician Course

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—William J. Hauze Jr., of Bethlehem, is among the final group of fifty assistant radio technician trainees from the Philadelphia Signal Depot who completed today their twelve weeks' intensive Rutgers University course in radio preparatory to service in the U. S. Signal Corps. They lived in New Brunswick while attending classes eight hours a day for six days a week at the university.

July 3, 1943