

Dillinger Jr., Harry L.

Made Corporal

SEP 3 1943

Climbing the ladder of success in the Army is Harry L. Dillinger Jr., son of Funeral Director and Mrs. Harry L. Dillinger, 413 West Broad Street. Word was received yesterday that young Dillinger had recently received promotion to the rank of corporal. At the present time Corporal Dillinger, who was inducted into the Army December 8, 1942, is attached to the medical detachment, 301st Infantry, 94th Army, Camp Phillips, Kansas. His uncle, Major John E. Dillinger, who died in 1928, served with distinction and valor in World War I and was a captain of Co. D, Allentown. The new corporal, who attended Moravian and Perkiomen preparatory schools, was studying at Eccles College, Philadelphia, at the time of induction.

September 3, 1943