

Chief
Horvath, Rosalie

SERVING THEIR UNCLE SAMUEL—“In the Army now” are Miss Rosalie Horvath (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Horvath, Bethlehem R. D. 4 florists and the Horvaths’ Belgian Shepherd dog, “Chief” (center), while Frank, (right), brother of Miss Horvath and Chief’s “boss”, is a corporal, just having received his stripes. Miss Horvath joined the WAACS, being sworn in on February 11 at Allentown. She attended St. John Capistrano parochial school and was active in First Aid work, having been an ambulance driver for the Butztown casualty station, and assisted her parents in the conduct of their business. Chief was shipped last January 27 to induction center for war dogs at Erdenheim, Pa. He’s a husky fellow, weighing 95 pounds and standing 29 inches at the foreshoulder. He’s a pureblooded Belgian. Corp. Horvath was inducted in April of 1942 and received his basic training at Camp Joseph Robinson, Ark. He’s now at Hawthorne, Calif., with the Army Medical Corps.
