

Heft, John A.

John Heft Made Technical Sergeant

Word of the promotion of John A. Heft, son of Wilbur Heft, Washington Avenue, Bethlehem, to the rank of technical sergeant has been received from the young Bethlehem soldier. Sgt. Heft is on duty in Africa.

The same message contained the news that Sgt. Heft had recently spent eight weeks in a hospital with an attack of eczema. He went overseas from Duncan Field, Texas.

Sgt. Heft, a graduate of Liberty High School, was inducted into the Army February 4, 1942, and sent to Fort George Meade, Md. He later went to Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., and took a course in finance. He was transferred thence to Duncan Field.

The Bethlehem soldier is married to the former Ruth E. Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Ross, Fountain Hill, and is a former employe of the Morning Call, Bethlehem office.

July 14, 1943