

Wagner, Harley O.

Coopersburg Soldier
Wounded In Italy

WAR 20 1944

Harley O. Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wagner, of Coopersburg R. D. 1, Springfield Township, Bucks County, was wounded in January during the fighting in Italy, according to word received by his parents recently.

Now 19 years of age, Wagner was inducted on March 11, 1943, and left for overseas duty in October of the same year. On July 12, 1943, he married the former Pearl Kramer. He had been employed by the Bethlehem Steel Corp., before entering the service.

The Wagners have four other sons, Arthur, Leroy, Edward and Wallace, and three daughters, Virginia, Mrs.

Arlene Weaver and Mrs. Betty Hanowitch.
