

Kutosh, Stephen

Naval Officer

JAN 10 1946

Gunnery officer aboard a destroyer escort in the North Atlantic, Ensign Stephen Kutosh was recently advanced to Lieutenant (junior grade).

The son of Mrs. Louis Kutosh, 620 South Berge St., he graduated from Lehigh University in October, 1943, and was doing research work there when he entered the Navy in May of last year.

After completing boot training at Camp Peary, Va., the naval officer was sent to Princeton University where he was made an Ensign. He attended the U. S. Naval Air Navigation School in Hollywood, Fla., before being shipped to the Pacific where he was on convoy duty.
