

Davis, Raymond J.

Draft Board No. 3
Sends Group
For Examination

MAY 17 1944

With Raymond J. Davis, 640 Thirteenth Avenue, and Fred Keller, 1425 Courtland Street, as leader and assistant leader, ten men were sent by Bethlehem Draft Board No. 3 to the Allentown Induction Center for examination today.

The date of their induction, if they pass the examination, is not yet known. Draft Board No. 3 is sending a Navy contingent away on Friday but has received no Army call for the month of May.

Others besides Davis and Keller who went to Allentown were: Benjamin Rhines, 1828 West Broad Street; Donald Meixell, 246 West Fairview Street; Ellwood Hollinger, 319 Liberty Street; Alfred C. Callen, Jr., 820 Beverly Avenue; Robert J. Hoffert, 301 Spring Street; Noel P. Schreiner, 1534 West Union Boulevard; William W. Jepson, 1007 Prospect Avenue, and Theodore Shook, 1122 West Broad Street.
