

Ackerman, Robert W
Hall, Elwood

It's A Small World, Etc., Etc.

Pfc. Robert W. Ackerman, 1123 Wood Street (left), and Platoon Sergeant Elwood Hall, 547 Carlton Avenue, discovered after working in the same office in the Pacific theater for months, that they were from the same city, went to the same high school, Broughal High School and have many friends in common. Platoon Sergt. Hall is acting First Sergeant to the Antiaircraft Unit that established a world record by shooting down 13 Jap planes with 88 rounds of ammunition, and Pfc. Ackerman is a clerk.

MARCH 21, 1945