

Cutsler, Homer B.

Local Soldier Takes Bride in Philadelphia

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Vivian H. Risher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Risher Jr. of Philadelphia and Sgt. Homer B. Cutsler, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cutsler of 625 Bishopthorpe Street, this city, which took place New Year's Day at 6:30 p. m. in the Lutheran Church of the Incarnation, Philadelphia. The Rev. Earl F. Rohn officiated at a double ring ceremony.

The bride, gowned in traditional white satin with veil and carrying a spray of white roses, gardenias and bouvardia, was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Ethel M. Cutsler of Philadelphia, and her cousin, Miss M. Elaine Robson of Collingswood, N. J. Miss Cutsler wore old rose faille and carried pink roses and heliotrope, while Miss Robson wore powder blue faille and carried yellow roses and heliotrope.

Louise O. Tribbetts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton Tribbetts of Philadelphia, also a cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore rose faille trimmed in blue. She carried Colonial bouquet.

E. Crawford Fetter of Media was best man and J. Milton Tribbetts and Gerald Simon of Bethlehem were ushers.

The church was decorated with white chrysanthemums, ferns and palms. D. Heckman of Drexell played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the soloists, Miss Edna Hertz of Stratford, N. J., and the Rev. John Morrison, Philadelphia.

A reception followed at the bride's home, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New York City.

The bride is a graduate of West Philadelphia High School and is employed by Williams and Walton, insurance brokers. The bridegroom was graduated from Bethlehem High School and Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science. At present he is in the Army, stationed at Camp Mackall, N. C.
