

Schlegel Jr, James

SCHLEGEL PROMOTED

James Schlegel Jr., well-known Pen Argylite, now stationed with the United States Army in an Engineers company at Camp Gruber, Okla., recently was promoted to the rank of Private First Class. "Jim," as he is popularly known in the Slate Belt and Lehigh Valley, having been active in the promoting of sports in Pen Argyl, has been able to continue his interest in sports at Camp Gruber. The early part of this year he was named in charge of athletics in his company at Camp Gruber. Easter Sunday Pfc. Schlegel sang on a soldiers' program from radio station KBIX, Muskogee, Okla. He also has been scheduled to sing over the same station for several Thursday evenings at 9 o'clock, Eastern War Time.
