

Kelemen, Alex

Lower Saucon Township
Supervisor Gets Release
From Naval Service

NOV 24 1945
Alex Kelemen, seaman first class, whose wife, Mary, resides in Hellertown, R. D. 1, was discharged from the Navy Nov. 9 at Bainbridge, Md. He had served nineteen and a half months in the Navy, 14 months of which were spent in the European theater of operations.

Prior to entering the service he was township supervisor in Lower

Saucon and served as Sunday School superintendent of St. John's Windish Evangelical Lutheran Church, of which he is a member. He also was on the board of directors of Fountain Hill Cemetery Association. A collector in the local office of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Company, Kelemen expects to resume his former duties.

The dischargee is the son of Mrs. Fannie Kelemen, R. D. No. 3, Easton.

November 24, 1945