Four Bath Brothers In Armed Services 1943

Four sons of George F. Bittenbender, Sr., of Walnut Street, Bath, are serving their country in various branches of the armed services.

Harold Bittenbender, stationed in Fort Monmouth, N. J., was the first of the four brothers to be called to duty. He has been in training for more than a year. Leo Bittenbender was inducted into the army during the early part of the year. He is stationed in a camp in the south.

George Bittenbender, inducted a month ago, was accepted for the Navy and is completing his basic training at Sampson, N. Y. The fourth brother, William C. Bittenbender, was inducted three weeks ago into the Coast Guard and began his boot training period on Friday, December 3, at Manhattan Beach, N. Y.
