

Strobel, Walter A.

Wearing Wings

Walter A. Strobel, son of Joseph Strobel, 1625 Lehigh Avenue, is wearing sergeant chevrons and the silver wings of an aerial gunner. He received basic training at St. Petersburg, Fla., then went to Aerial Gunnery School, Lyndal Field, Fla., where he received his wings and rating. Since then he has moved to Buckley Field and Lowry Field, Colorado and Salt Lake, Utah, the latter replacement wing of the Air Corps.

June 8, 1943