

Ocock, Rahyl L.

Well-Earned Rest For Local Seaman

AN EAST COAST PORT—Rahyl Lufberry Ocock, 23, of Bethlehem, Pa., who is serving as a seaman first class aboard one of our fighting ships, is now in the United States enjoying a well-earned rest from combat duty.

APR 6 1944

Seaman Ocock is the son of Mrs. Albert Ocock, 201 West Broad Street, Bethlehem, Pa. His wife, the former Miss Geraldine Smith, resides at 433 East North Street, Bethlehem. He attended the Bethlehem Vocational High School and was employed as an inspector by the Bethlehem Steel Company prior to his enlistment in the Navy. He wears the American Theatre and European-African-Middle Eastern campaign ribbons.

April 6, 1944