

Lynn, Mark

EXPERT AT SHOOTING

Someday, somewhere in the theater of war across the seas an indignant Nazi soldier will start ducking the bullets from the gun of Mark Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lynn, 38 Clearfield Street, Freemansburg. He won't duck long, for Lynn has just been awarded a medal for marksmanship and each bullet will have some Nazi's number on it.

MAR 20 1943

PFC. MARK LYNN

The Lynns last heard from their son four weeks ago. He is presumed to be in Africa. He has become a private first class.

March 20, 1943