

Eckhart, Henry
Clyde
Clinton
Quintus

Brothers Reunited

F 2/C Henry      Pvt. Clinton      S 2/C Clyde      Pfc. Quintus

Fireman 2/C Henry Eckhart, Seaman 2/C Clyde Eckhart and Private Clinton Eckhart met at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Eckhart, 1218 Wood Street, for the first time in over a year, and received the good news of their brother, Private First Class Quintus Eckhart's recent promotion and award of the Good Conduct Medal. F 2/C Eckhart was employed as a janitor in St. John's Reformed Church, Nazareth, before entering the service. Upon completion of his leave, he will return to the Philadelphia Navy Hospital. Private Clinton, whose station is at Camp Crowder, Mo., is a former employe of the Bell Telephone Company. S 2/C Clyde will return to Washington to receive further radio training upon completing his leave. He was attending Moravian College and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company at the time of his enlistment. Pfc. Quintus was employed by the Waist Mill in Nazareth before entering the service. He is stationed with a Medical Detachment in France at present.

March 5, 1945