

Koenig, Harry

MAJOR HARRY KOENIG TO BE GIVEN FAREWELL

~~6-5-1942~~
Army Ordnance Inspector Resigns

Post Because of Health.

Major Harry L. Koenig, U. S. army ordnance reserve and army ordnance inspector at the local plant of the Bethlehem Steel Company, who has been ordered by his personal physician to take a prolonged rest because of ill health, will be given a farewell dinner by members of his department Friday, June 12, at 7:15 p. m. in Trainer's Restaurant, Quakertown.

Major Koenig, whose home was formerly in Alabama, has submitted his resignation effective Monday, June 15, and has been relieved of all duties by Captain J. I. Wexlin, of Philadelphia, U. S. army ordnance department, industrial division, formerly of the Philadelphia army ordnance district. The retiring major will leave for his home in St. Petersburg, Fla., the date of his resignation.

Captain Wexlin, a resident of Philadelphia for the past fifteen years, has been assigned as officer in charge of the Bethlehem sub-office comprising the Bethlehem, Allentown and Easton area. Through previous visits to this city, the new officer in charge has quite a number of friends here.

Arrangements for the dinner are in charge of a committee composed of George A. Baumer, U. S. army ordnance clerk at the Steel Company's plant here; George H. Atherholt and Walter Richards, all department members.

Jun. 5, 1942