Three Local GI's Enroll For Study In English College

The U. S. Army University Center in England, designed to give soldiers a chance to get college instruction while waiting to return to the United States, has started its first semester with an enrollment of 3,611, including three Bethlehem GI's.

Pfc. Stanley G. Moyer, 22, 619 Eleventh Avenue, is a member of the 360th Military Police Company, and is now studying dramatics and speech. He attended Bethlehem High School. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Garvin I. Moyer.

Studying electrical engineering and chemistry is another Bethlehem High School graduate, Sgt. Louis F. Vargo, 24, 1204 East Third Street. Sgt. Vargo is a member of the Ninth Air Force. His parents reside at the above address.

A former Clemson A. and M. student, Sgt. Charles W. Dunn, 25, 1320 West Union Boulevard, is studying psychology and geopolitics. He is a member of the 191st General Hospital.
