Three Finger Brothers Have First Reunion In Three Years

A one-evening reunion, the first in three years for the three Finger brothers, of 1112 Prospect Avenue, who are in the armed forces, was enjoyed when Staff Sergeant James M. Finger of the U. S. Marine Corps came home on furlough the day before his brother, Pvt. Robert P. Finger, left for his basic training in the U. S. Marines, Parris Island, S. C. A third brother, Fred W. Finger, cadet midshipman in the U. S. Maritime Service, who completed eight months of sea duty, is also home on a 15-day leave.

Cadet Fred, at the end of his leave, will report to the Maritime Academy at Kings Point, L. I., and Staff Sgt. James will report for reassignment to Cherry Point, N. C. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred N. Finger.
