

Daday, Joseph

M. Sgt. Joseph Daday
At Florida Station⁸ 1945
After Pacific Duty

M./Sgt. Joseph M. Daday, 658 Buchanan Street, has arrived at Army Air Forces Redistribution Station No. 2 in Miami Beach, Fla., for reassignment processing after completing a tour of duty outside the continental United States.

He served as an aerial engineer during 34 months in the Southwest Pacific. Before joining the AAF in January 7, 1942, he was an aircraft and engine instructor at Bethlehem Technical High School. He had a previous term of Army service.

While at this redistribution center, Sgt. Daday will devote much of his time to rest and recreation and will be given a thorough medical examination to determine his new assignment.

February 8, 1945