

LAVINGER, Joseph

Joseph Lavinger Ends Navy Service

Joseph Lavinger, S1/C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lavinger, 715 Third Ave., was discharged Sunday from the Sampson, N. Y. Separation Center.

MAR 21 1946
S1/C Lavinger entered the service Jan. 6, 1944, and completed his boot training at Sampson, N. Y., before he was assigned to sea duty aboard a minesweeper. He served in both the Pacific and European theaters.

The dischargee attended parochial schools in this city and was employed by Bethlehem Steel Company prior to entering the Navy. He resides with his wife, the former Joyce Kelley, at 1038 Broadway.

March 21, 1946