

Agocs, Alfred

WINS SERGEANT'S STRIPES

Announcement of his promotion to a sergenty is contained in a letter recently received from Sgt. Alfred Agocs by his father, Stephen Agocs, proprietor of the Freeman House in Freemansburg.

MAR 19 1943

SGT. ALFRED AGOCS

Sgt. Agocs was inducted into the Army in Brooklyn, N. Y., where he was employed as a garage mechanic, about two years ago. He is still called upon to exercise his mechanical ability as a member of the Quartermaster's Platoon of an Air Depot Group now stationed in northern Ireland. Now 27 years of age, he was graduated from Liberty High School, where he was a member of the varisty football team, in 1935.

Mar. 19, 1943