

Erwin, William S.

Cpl. W. S. Erwin Released from Nazi Prison

Corporal William S. Erwin, 821 West Broad Street, has been liberated from a German prison camp, Stalag 4B, and returned to U. S. military control, it was revealed in a telegram from the War Department yesterday.

Corporal Erwin, husband of the former Alma Bernhard, was reported missing in action during the battle for Luxembourg on December 16. The date of his return to United States Army control was given as April 13.

He is the son of the late William H. Erwin and Olivia Stem Erwin of Bethlehem. A graduate of Staunton Military Academy and University of Pittsburgh he entered the army in March 1941. After training at various camps he went overseas in September, 1943. There he was stationed in England, France, Belgium, and Germany as a member of the medical corps.

Before entering the service he was in the insurance business.

MAY 10 1945

May 10, 1945