

Musselman, Betty L.

Local Army Nurse
Kept Busy Caring
For Wounded Men

DEC 27 1944

THE 104TH GENERAL HOSPITAL, England—The care and comfort of wounded American fighting men brought to this United States Army general hospital is the important job of Second Lieutenant Betty L. Musselman of 341 Liberty Street, Bethlehem, Pa.

In addition to giving medications, keeping medical records and assisting medical officers with dressings, Lieut. Musselman supervises the medical technicians who work in her ward. She also likes to see to the small comforts of her patients, whether it is getting them fruits or sweets, obtaining gifts for their folks in the United States or playing a game of checkers.

After graduating from St. Luke's Hospital School of Nursing in 1940, Lieut. Musselman worked at the Park Lane Hospital in Salinas, Cal., before entering the Army in July, 1943. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Musselman of the Liberty Street address.

December 27, 1944