

Althoff, George

Gets Purple Heart

FEB 14 1945

Mr. and Mrs. George Althoff, 103 Essex Court, have received the Purple Heart awarded to their son, Staff Sergeant George O. Althoff, for wounds he received in France November 8, 1944. He was also awarded a citation for expert rifling in the Infantry.

Sergeant Althoff is with the 318th Infantry Division in General Patton's Third Army. He will observe his birthday anniversary February 18. Before entering the service, he was employed in the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Feb 14, 1945