

kincaid, E.L.
kincaid, H
E.L.

Brothers Get Promotions

E. L. KINCAID

H. KINCAID

Advanced in rating recently, these two stalwart Bethlehem lads now serve their country with added vigor. They are, left, wearing his newly-won stripes, Staff Sergeant E. L. Kincaid Jr., and right, Seaman Second Class Harvey Kincaid, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kincaid Sr., 624 Bradley Street, Bethlehem. Sgt. Kincaid was inducted in March of 1942. He is stationed at Ft. Andrews, Mass. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company. His wife is the former Margaret Manner, of Allentown. His brother enlisted in October of 1942, received his basic training at Bainbridge, Md., and was transferred to the Aviation Metalsmith School at Norman, Okla. When he graduates in June he will be further advanced, taking the rating of petty officer, third class. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Bureau of Streets.

Apr. 20 1943