

Spear, Albert S.

Pilot School Grad

JAN 12 1944

Among the class graduated last Friday from the Douglas Army Air Force Pilot School at Douglas, Ariz., was Albert S. Spear, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Spear, 1017 Monocacy Street, this city.

The young man, now 23 years of age, who enlisted a year before Pearl Harbor, received his wings at the graduation exercises and has been commissioned as a lieutenant.

After entering the service he became a member of a Military Police unit and later became a sergeant of a glider flying unit and then was selected for training at Douglas Pilot School. He is a Bethlehem High School graduate, and prior to entering the service had been employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Bethlehem Steel Company.
