

Cassidy, Richard A.

Local Soldier,
Reported Missing,
Now Nazi Prisoner

APR 5 1944

Mr. and Mrs. John Cassidy, 351 Sixth Avenue, who were notified recently that their son, Pfc. Richard A. Cassidy, was missing in action in Italy since January 22, had a pleasant surprise yesterday when they received a card from him.

The card was dated February 10 and the message read: "I am a German war prisoner, am fine and in good health."
