

Shimoskie, Joseph

Joseph Shimoskie,
Bath Soldier,
Killed In Germany

Pfc. Joseph Shimoskie, Broad Street, Bath, was reported killed in action in Germany, March 28, according to a telegram received by his wife from the War Department yesterday morning.

He was inducted March, 1944, and received his training at New Cumberland and Camp Stewart, Ga. He was overseas since New Year of this year, serving with the infantry.

Besides his wife, Mary, nee Loder, a son, Joseph Jr., nine years old, survives. He was 38 years old and formerly was employed at the Pennsylvania Dixie Cement Corporation, Bath.

April 13, 1945