

Beretz, William Louis

Local Tar Hurt Taking Part In Invasion

David Beretz, 839 Radclyffe Street, this city, this afternoon received word that his brother, 18-year old William Louis Beretz, seaman second class, had been injured in action.

Young Beretz, according to letters written his brother under date of June 11, had taken part in the French invasion. The telegram from the Navy Department did not give the extent of his injuries, nor the date when he received them.

Seaman Beretz is a native of Bethlehem. He enlisted a year ago after finishing his studies at Washington Junior High. His parents are dead.
