Globe-Times Makes Local WAC Happy

MAR 3 1944

Sgt. Mary Lou Kranyecz, a member of the Women's Army Corps, stationed at Mitchel Field, N. Y., likes her job as a WAC, but she missed her home town—at least the news—she writes in a letter to The Globe-Times.

"I have been home quite frequently since I arrived at Mitchel Field about a year ago", she writes, "and spend a great deal of my time at home glancing at the local paper. Whether it was an old or latest edition, it was sure good to read about the town, the occasional excitement, the social gatherings, sports, not to forget the society page, the funnies, etc.

"Since I will not be able to get home quite as often as I have been, I have decided it would be a good idea to have the Bethlehem Globe-Times sent to me. Thus I can still feel attached to the well known Christmas City. By keeping up with the local news I can still retain my interests in any event or occurrence on my brief visits home."

Sgt. Kranyecz closed her letter by asking what arrangements could be made to have the newspaper sent to her . . . She will become one of the hundreds of men and women serving in the armed forces in all parts of the world to whom The Globe-Times is sent each day.
