

Lendvay, John S.

Ends Long Service ^{OCT.} 1 1945

Pfc. John S. Lendvay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Lendvay, 124 Lehigh Avenue, Palmerton, was recently honorably discharged from the service at the Indiantown Gap Separation Center after serving three years and eight months.

He served two years overseas with the 136th Station Hospital and later was transferred to the combat medics serving with the 394th Infantry of the 99th Division.

Pfc. Lendvay wears the ETO ribbon with three combat stars, Good Conduct ribbon and the Purple Heart, awarded to him for wounds received March 10, 1945, on the Remagen bridgehead.

Lendvay and his wife, the former Mary Puchta of Trumbauersville, are now residing in this city.

October 11, 1945