

Arnold, Norbert H.

Pfc. Norbert Arnold
Overseas 28 Months
With Engineer Unit

WITH THE 27TH INFANTRY DIVISION IN THE PACIFIC—Private First Class Norbert H. Arnold of Bethlehem, R. D. 3, has served 28 months overseas with Lt. Col. Harold F. Gormsen's crack Combat Engineers, a part of the famed 27th Infantry Division commanded by Major General George W. Griner.

A commendation was recently given by the division commander to his unit for meritorious achievement in combat and for the excellent work that unit recently finished on a Pacific island rest camp where the 27th is now stationed.

The Bethlehem veteran participated in the Marshalls and Marianas islands campaigns which have helped greatly in winning the present-day American dominance of the Pacific Ocean areas. He serves as a machine gunner in his unit.

His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Arnold. APR 3 1945
