ENSIGN MAURICE S. TYSON

Navy Promotes Sister, Brother To Higher Grades

Ensign Claire Tyson, Navy Nurses' Corps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Tyson, of 621 Third Avenue, has been promoted to lieutenant, junior grade, and arrived home yesterday on a ten-day leave. She will report for duty at the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Md., at the conclusion of her leave.

Lieut. Tyson enlisted in May, 1942. Recently she has been stationed at Camp Peary, Va.

Her brother, Maurice S. Tyson, has completed his officers' training course in the Naval Reserve and has been commissioned an ensign. At present he is on sea duty. He served in the Merchant Marine about 18 months and left that service to enter Naval Officers' Training School.
