

Kittek, Edward

Marine Corporal

NOV 10 1945

Pfc. Edward Kittek, USMC, son of Mrs. Frank Kittek, Seventh Street, Miller Heights, has been promoted to corporal. He enlisted December, 1942, and completed his training at Parris Island, N. C., and Weymouth, Mass., before going on active duty overseas. He has been serving in the Panama Canal for the past two years. His brother Frank Kittek, another "leatherneck" has been in the Pacific since August, 1944. He took part in the Okinawa campaign and at present is in China.

Nov. 10, 1945